VOLUME XVIII

HOLLAND, MICHIGAN

*O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home.*

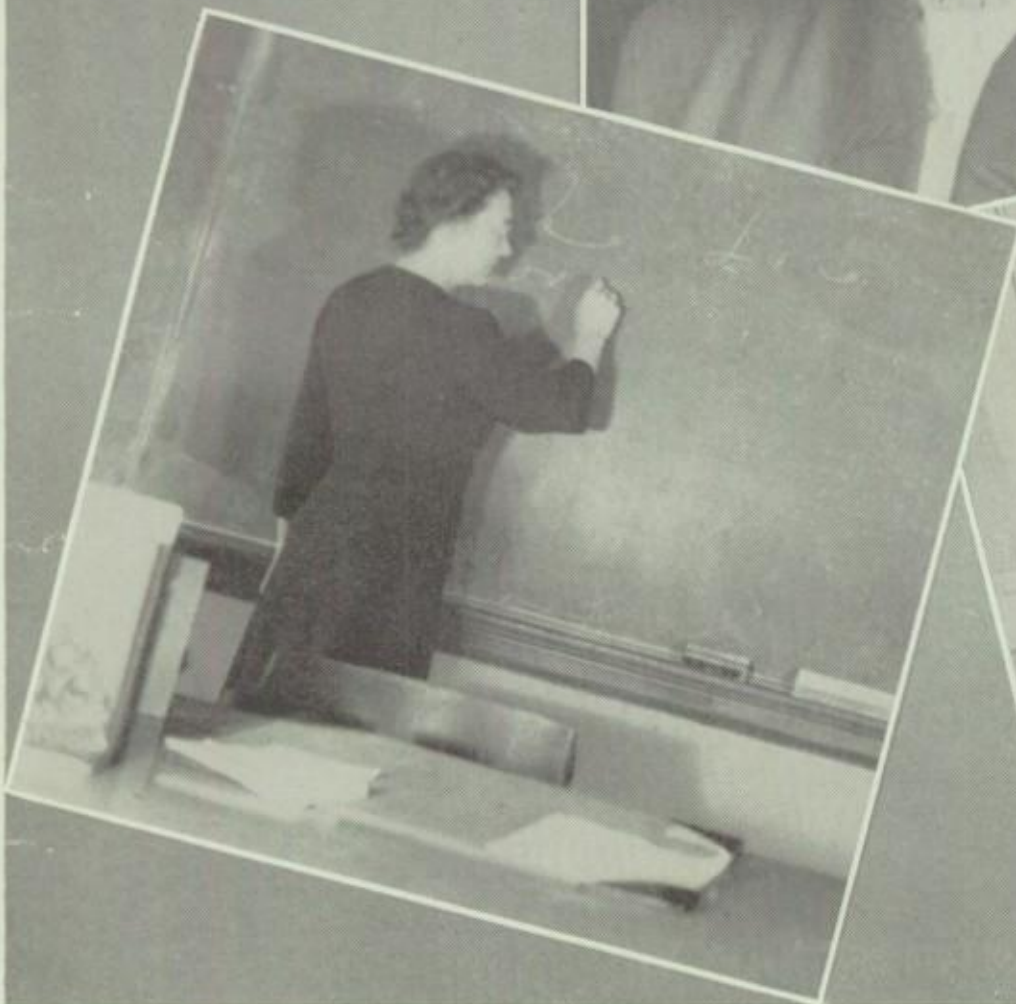

Theme

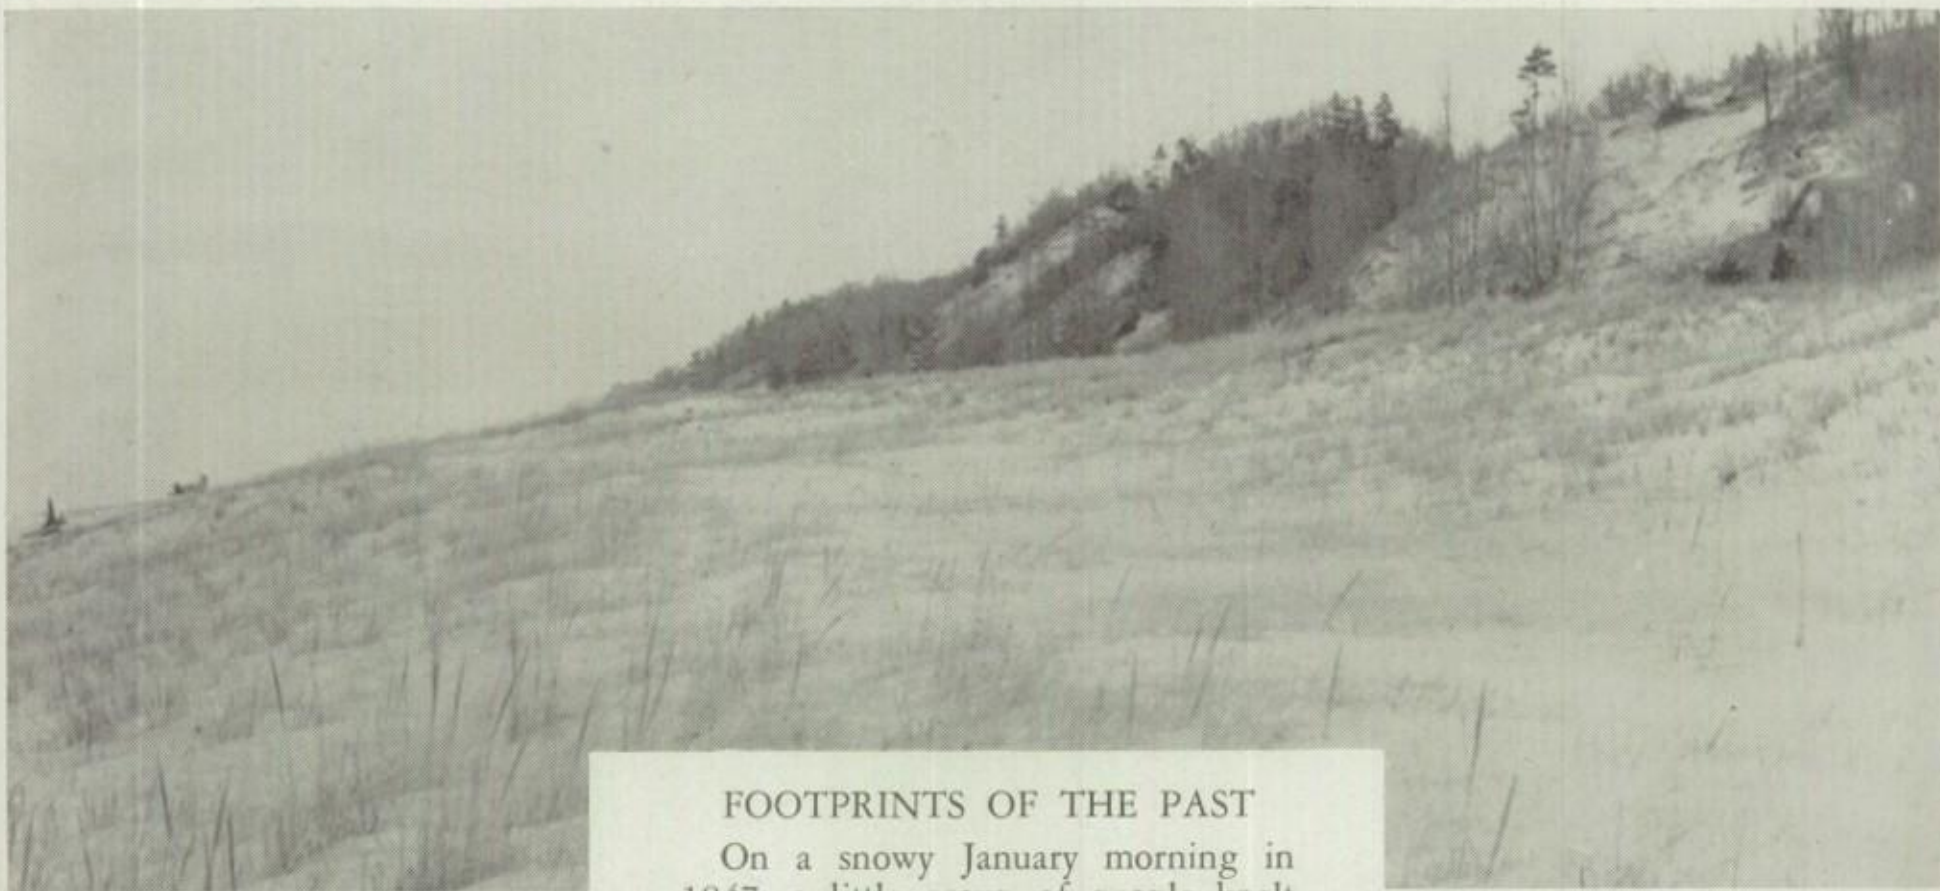

One hundred years ago our fathers, struggling through the virgin forest to the shores of Lake Macatawa, determined that here should rise their city. We have entered into their heritage, and we appreciate their efforts to establish a Christian colony.

Not all their footprints are clear, nor do all lead in the right directions. They too groped about searching for greater light and happiness; but we can profit by their experiences, and for the most part can safely follow in their footsteps. We would dedicate ourselves to the highest ideals that moved them and build on in courage and faith on the foundation they have laid. With God as our Guide, we shall go forward unfalteringly in the footprints of the pioneers.

To Miss Sena Grevingoed — efficient head of the commercial department — valued advisor to the Annual Staff — prim and dainty bundle of energy — friendly leader and counselor — inspiring devotee to her ideals — we, the Senior Class of '47, dedicate this volume of the Footprints.

FOOTPRINTS OF THE PAST

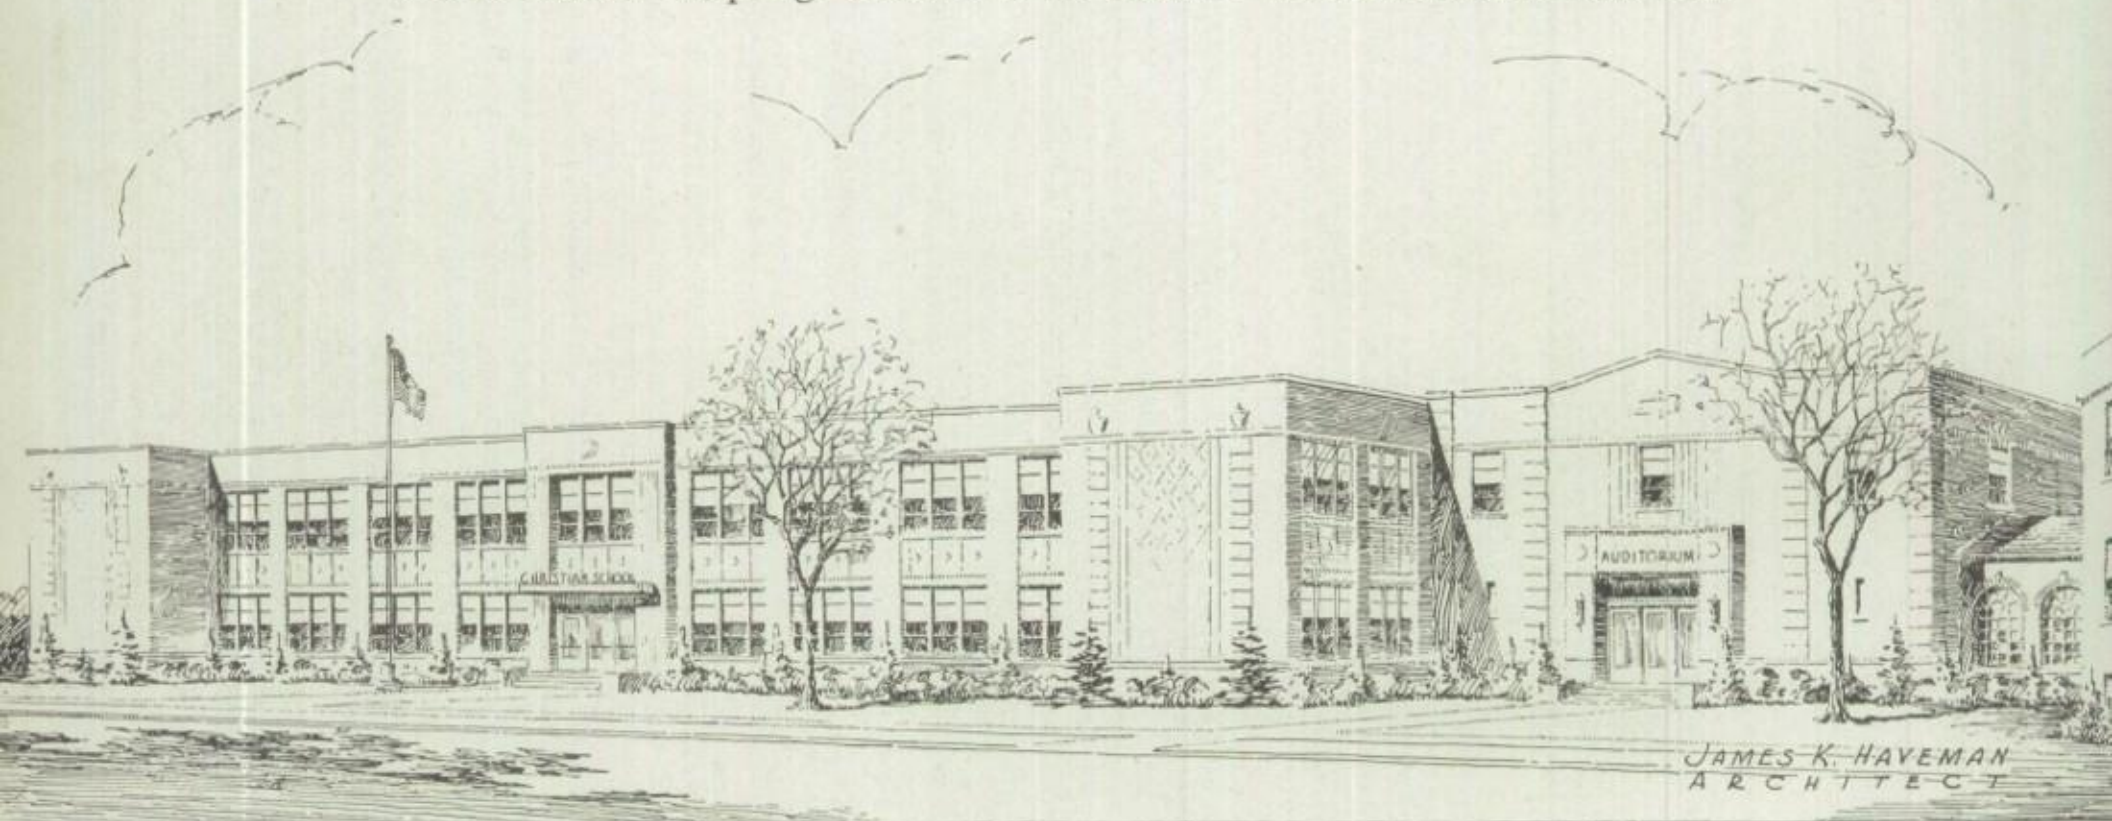

On a snowy January morning in 1847, a little group of people knelt on the shore of Lake Macatawa. They gave humble thanks to God who had led them through the difficult years of persecution in their homeland, and now had shown them the spot in which their new homes must be built and life begun anew in this land of promise.

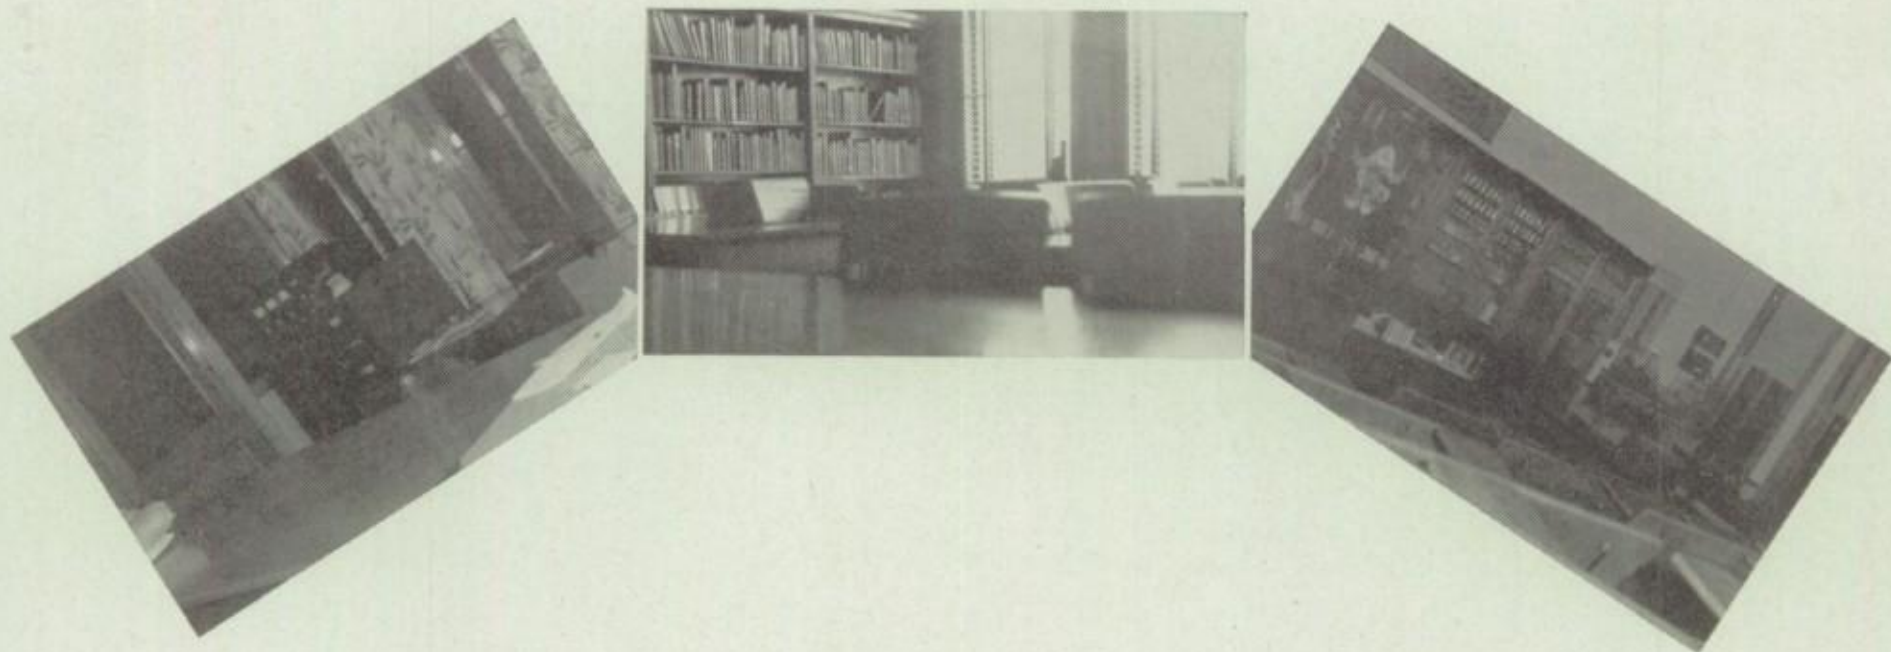

Homes were founded and churches erected throughout the course of those trying years of colonization. However, the greatest desire of these Dutch colonists had not yet been fulfilled — they longed for Christian education for their children. In 1902 a Christian grade school was begun and in 1923 the Christian high school had its origin.

Now in the year 1947, we pause to consider what marvelous results these struggles and sacrifices of the pioneers have achieved with the help of God. Plans are being made to build a new school building in order to accommodate the increase in enrollment.

This century has been one of progress and growth. What will the next century hold? We, the class of '47, pledge ourselves to the ideals of Van Raalte and his followers.

Our Alma Mater

Thank You!

Webster tells us that "thank you" is an "expression of gratitude;" therefore, to the Eunice and Monica Aids we wish to express our appreciation for the time and effort devoted to our school activities.

Our financial agent, Mr. Pott, is due a vote of thanks for his faithful work as collector of tuition and in other financial matters. Lucille, our beloved office girl, will ever remain in our memories for her friendly service and beneficial help. Of her it can truly be said, "Always friendly, always kind, at times both deaf and blind."

Last but not least are our janitors, Mr. Westerhof and Mr. Dykstra, who keep our halls tidy and clean.

To each we extend our heartiest "thank you."

A MESSAGE FROM THE SCHOOL BOARD

In this Centennial year we tend to look back into the past and to draw comparisons. Christian High could not have existed a century ago, but neither would it have being today were it not for what happened then and since. We are the products of history. Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, the father of our colony, was devoted to the ideal of Christian education. That his ideal remained little more than a dream during his life time is not strange when we consider all the facts.

For nearly a half century there has been a Christian School in our fair city, the realization of that dream, and from year to year it has grown stronger. Today one thousand pupils receive Christian preparation for life within its buildings, with well over one-third of them in our High School.

How the pioneers would thrill to see the growth of the little school they founded! We can pay no better tribute to them than to labor persistently for the ever greater development of their ideals.

May you who have the distinction of graduating in this Centennial year find reason in days to come to appreciate in ever increasing measure the rich contribution our School has made to your cultural and spiritual life.

"On September 25, 1943, amidst the appropriate 'pomp and ceremony' of the Freshman Reception, the future class of 1947 was initiated into the activities of Christian High. Since that time they have matured considerably, and, as a class are aptly finding their place in many fields of activity at school."

This quotation from "The Footprints of 1944" was interesting to me because I noted with pleasure the rapid progress and growth made by the Freshmen of 1943 in a year's time according to your reporter.

It has been my privilege to be a witness of your development and growth only during your last year as students in Holland Christian High School. I am glad that I have had the opportunity of learning to know most of you by name and many of you because of your excellent scholarship and by the evidences of your good citizenship. I am sorry that our acquaintance has been of such short duration.

Now the time has come to bid you farewell. Associations as superintendent and students, which have been for the most part pleasant ones, must of necessity come to an end. However, I sincerely hope that you will continue to be active members of the Alumni Association so that we may meet again from time to time to renew our acquaintance.

My closing words to you are those which I used when I greeted you and the other students on the first school day last September. As you begin anew in another institution of learning or as a full time employee in business or industry remember to get off to a good start! The keynote for such a beginning is found in the first two verses of the twelfth chapter of the epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Hebrews where we read:

"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

God bless you all.

In Loving Memory

do we, the Senior Class of 1947, devote this page of our annual to Maxine Brieve and Perry Dys, who through our Heavenly Father's wisdom were not permitted to graduate with us. With fond memories do we call them to mind and feel that they are still with us; therefore we dedicate this small remembrance to them.

We cannot think of them as dead
Who walk with us no more;
Along the path of life we tread
They have but gone before.
The Father's house is mansioned fair
Beyond our vision dim;
All souls are His, and here or there
Are living unto Him.

FREDERICK LUCIAN HOSMER

CLASS PROPHECY

Scene: Corner of 8th and River

Hi, Carla, how are you? I never see you any more. What've you been doing lately? You mean you and Dort have started a day nursery all your own? I thought she was doing office work — oh, only part time.

Say, I was in Zeeland the other day, so I walked into Norraine and Alma's nice, new, modern drugstore. They were terribly busy serving customers with their perfectly delicious ice-cream. Their milk comes from Bob Bareman's dairy. Did you know Walt. L. has been helping Bob out by driving for him? Every morning he makes a trip to Mike's Dairy Farm, whose dairy herd, by the way, took top honors at the cattle show last year. Walt has been taking pointers on running a dairy and expects to open one of his own, the largest in Holland, next week.

As I was saying, I walked into the drugstore and was just looking around when the music from the juke box caught my ear. I thought that voice sounded familiar, so I stepped over and read all the name plates. Sure enough, Rosie Kooistra's name was listed with her accompanist, Kat Jelgersma.

Over in a booth, I saw Hazel De Vries, so I sat with her. While we waited for our orders she told me that Norma Piers and her vocalist, Ken Bosman, are fast becoming famous. They've got their own radio programs. Those laughable comedians, Walt. D., Ted, and Norm, provide the laughs. One of the outstanding critics, Dale Voss, lists their show as one of the best in the entertainment field.

I had to leave about then, but a few days later I was in Meyers' Music House and had a nice little chat with Helen Van Vels, who works there. She was telling me all about this big new church in town. Rev. Beelen is minister there; Shirley Kimball does the choir directing. Her well known quartet is composed of Marge Van Loo, Hazel Kool, Gert, and Jennie. In the past this quartet has made nation wide tours, but it may be broken up as Jen is planning on doing welfare nursing in Detroit as soon as she completes her training.

Opposite the Music Shop, hung a big sign. It merely stated, "The Vandie Shop". I knew Viny and Sandy had set up a sort of painters' shop so I decided to go and gossip with them. They specialize in portraits and landscape painting; there were several samples artistically arranged. We were busy discussing the way Andy is following in his dad's footsteps — has a coal yard, you know — when Joyce Rutgers came sedately in. She walked over and vigorously joined in the discussion by informing the three of us of the excellent job Don Schreur is doing with his dad's printing business.

Some people really have the life. Jut Petroelje is the playboy of the year, while folks like Blondie Doornbos slave away in an office or like Abbie De Wys, teach in grade school. Jack Vannette is the principal; Henry Teune does an excellent job as the smiling "cop on the corner" and is the especial friend of all the youngsters.

Clarie Knoll is running for the governorship this year, while Lloyd Wolters stands a good chance of making the Senate. His past career speaks well for him; with Ruth De Haan — his former secretary and present helper — aiding him, the future is promising. Speaking of secretaries, Dort Overbeek is running the financial and secretarial end of the delivery service run by Earl and Jay.

Bea Koetsier told me the other day that while she was at Interlochen (Bea was director there this year) she ran into Bill Haak. Bill was vacationing near there, but he told her he's busy working as a civil engineer in the upper peninsula.

Really? So Saramae is doing research on musical therapy. I knew she wanted to. She's teaching at Vassar? Why Max is head nurse at the same place. Did you know "Ellie" is the athletic director there?

That reminds me, Bob Altena is coach at the University of Michigan. Gene's team (from Purdue) gave Bob's men some pretty keen competition this past basketball season. Bob planned on settling in Hudsonville, but his work at the University makes that impractical. Of course, with all the celery raisers like Shirley Dreyer and Caroline doing such a large business in that vicinity, the housing situation is rather acute. Dale Alberda's trucking firm is kept quite busy by them, so much in fact, that he's had to hire several girls to run his office. Marge Schuitema and "Rae" Schut aptly fill the requirements and are doing an excellent job.

Lenora and Ruthie Bosscher decided to situate close to their home area. The Cutlerville Institution has benefited by having those two trained, registered nurses on duty; Betty has joined them of late. John Naber has proved himself an excellent surgeon; he holds the position of chief surgeon in a large hospital in New York where, by the way, Elaine is teaching dramatics.

I see John Slenk has returned from his buyer's trip to California. He's the traveling partner of the ownership of the exclusive men's shop set up by Kearny and himself. They have an excellent drawing card in the form of a barbershop quartet, who, I am told, breaks into song and perfect harmony without any previous notice. The quartet is made up of four of the clerks, two of whom are Bob Kraker and Gary. Con Boeve models men's suits there. John Otting runs the elevator and has a great time kidding Con.

On one of his extensive business trips to the East, John ran into Jim Lampen, who plays professional baseball with the Boston Red Sox. He's made himself quite a reputation and has become the baseball idol of millions of fans. Bobby soxers mob him whenever he gives out with that half-shy grin of his.

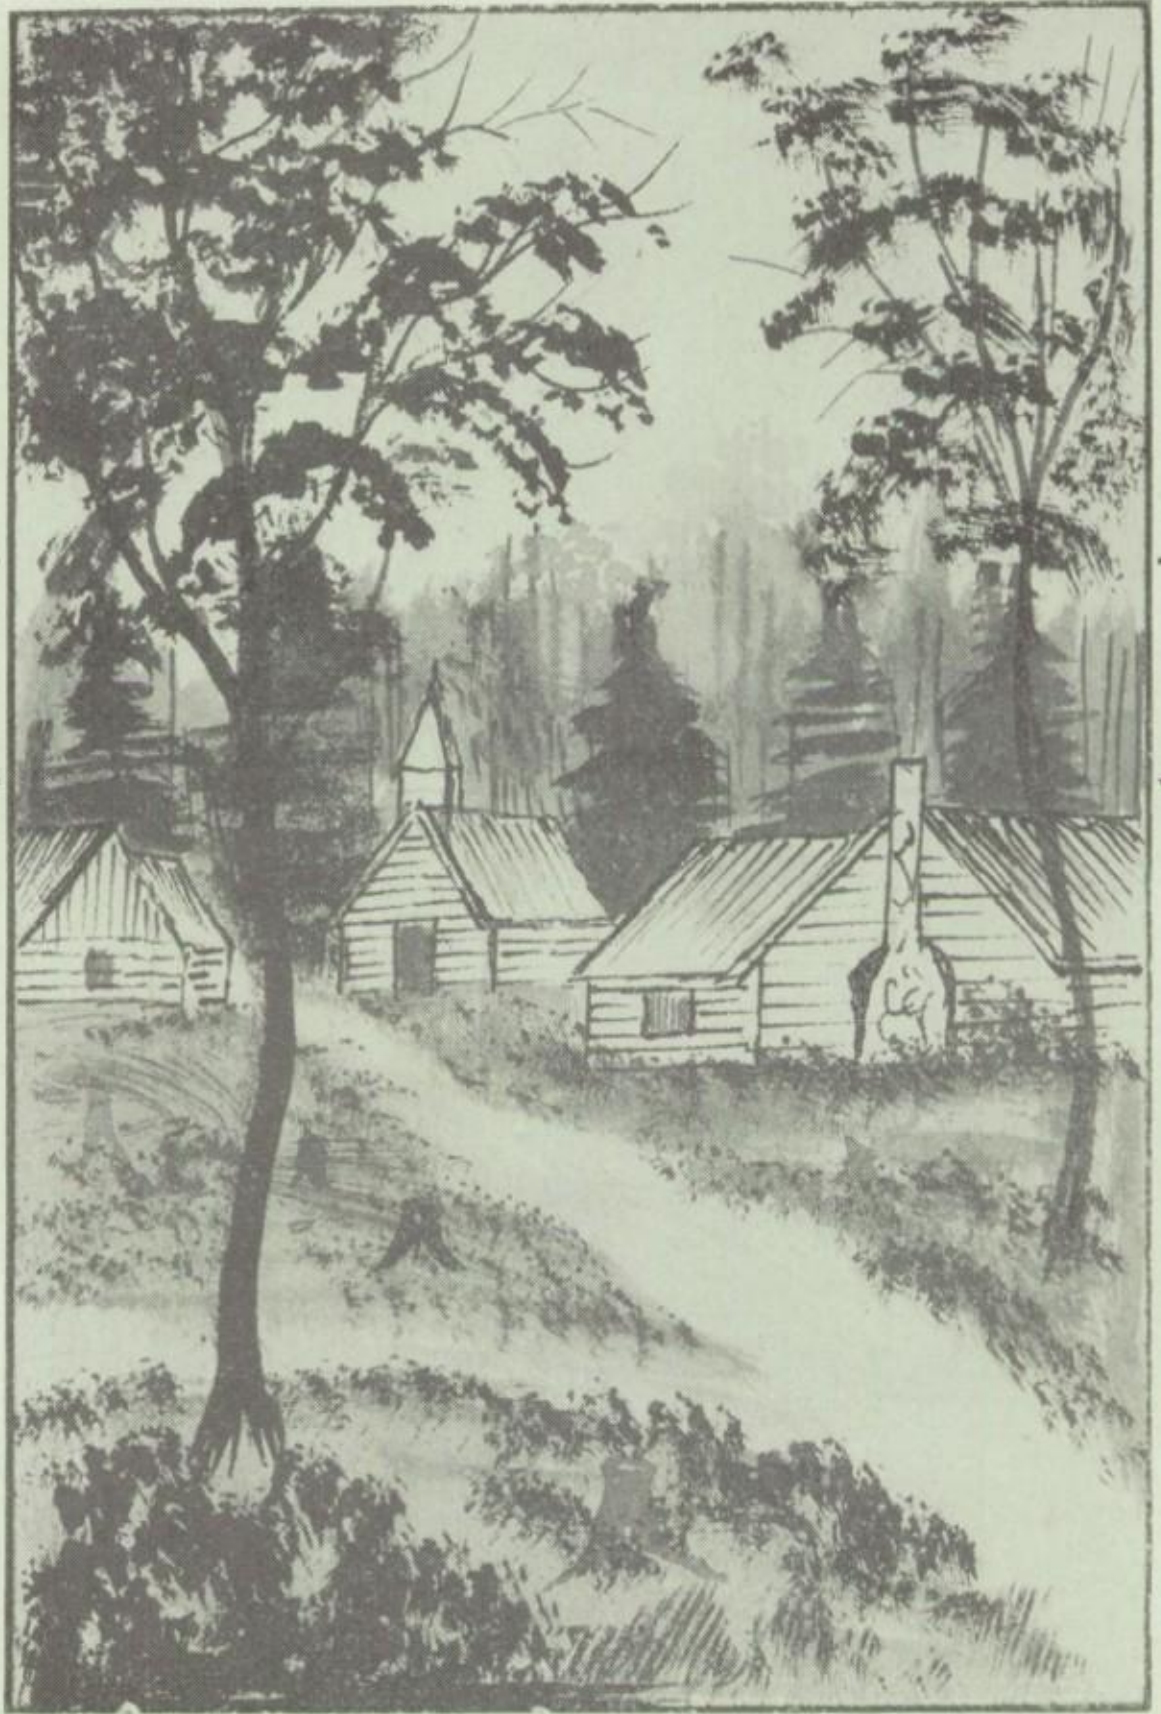

Well, I'd better run along. It's been swell seeing you, Carla. Call me up sometime. Bye.

SENIOR PLAY

A three act comedy, "Moonlight For Herbert," was presented under direction of Mr. Bengelink in the Holland High School Auditorium, May 8 and 9, before packed houses. The play is a story of a sixteen year old musician and all the trouble he incurred getting an audition with a famous music critic and winning a one hundred dollar prize. Its humor kept every one in stitches until the curtain was pulled on the last act. It was a grand climax to weeks of hard work.

CHRISTMAS CARD CAMPAIGN

The Senior Class of '47" has topped all previous records by selling $2477.55 worth of cards. John Slenk, our business manager, reported that a balance of $1054.45 remained after all expenses were paid. The four teams under their captains—Betty Meyering, Lloyd Wolters, Gene Schrottenboer, and Ted Persenaire—worked hard; and sold Christmas cards, everyday cards, gift cards, and wrappings in the surrounding country for miles and miles around. The team which went the farthest and triumphed was the East Outside team led by their captain, Ted Persenaire.

To top off our successful campaign the class members and faculty enjoyed a banquet in the gymnasium, prepared by the Eunice Aid. After the banquet, we were entertained with a grand program. Walter D. De Vries, the master of ceremonies, provided the laughs as he introduced the numbers. The program included a girls' trio, a clarinet duet, a trombone solo, a reading, a quartet, "Frankie Not-so-hat-tra", and finally, moving pictures. Thus ended the successful but never-to-be-forgotten campaign of the class of '47".

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The 24th of May, 1946, stands out to the Seniors as their first big party. They entertained the Seniors of '46 at a formal banquet in the Women's Literary Club. A delicious dinner was served on tables decorated with the "MAYTIME" theme. Bob Altena, the then Junior Class president, bid a few words of farewell to the Seniors and Earl Dykstra, Senior Class president, acknowledged the words spoken.

The Banqueters then proceeded to the main auditorium where they enjoyed two soothing trombone trio numbers; the trio consisted of Jack Stegink, Walter D. De Vries, and Lloyd Wolters. Saramae Witt entertained us with a reading. An operetta, "Windmills of Holland", was given under the capable direction of Mr. Baas. It portrayed the life of a Dutch family, and the introduction of electricity into the mill on Hertogenbosch's farm. The performance was enjoyed immensely by all.

CHOIR

"Music When Soft Voices Die . . ."

As the title of this song suggests, there are many pleasant experiences which the choir has had that "vibrate in the memory."

The number of singers has been increased this year to eighty. Therefore it was with great enthusiasm that the group, under the talented leadership of Mr. Baas, took part in several programs and concerts. The usual Spring Choir Festival at which the choirs of several Christian High Schools and of Calvin College are represented, and the Schubert Club Choir Festival were held in Grand Rapids. Other inspiring programs in which the group participated were the Centennial Celebration Program and the Tulip Time Concert.

This year has, we hope, also marked the beginning of entering state competition. On April 15, the choir was heard and rated by Mr. Armstrong from Grand Rapids as "recommended for second division." On May 10, the state contest was held at Lansing in which our choir participated. A first division rating was proudly received.

BAND

In September the band welcomed as its new maestro, Mr. Harold Geerdes, who has helped our band complete a very successful season.

Besides the two rehearsals a week we all sacrificed one "home-cooked" dinner weekly, to stay for a rehearsal. This was necessary as the band was very busy.

We furnished dinner music for the Heinz Banquet at Christmastime and also for the banquet for the new school drive. On March 29 we donned our uniforms again, but this time early in the morning, and went to the District Band and Orchestra Contest held in Grand Rapids. In spite of our few rehearsals, lack of uniforms and instruments, we were happy to receive a 2nd Division rating. On May 13 the band presented a successful concert in the H. H. S. Auditorium. The band also participated in the Tulip Time Festival.

Mr. Geerdes is also doing much for beginners and the more advanced musicians in the elementary grades.

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

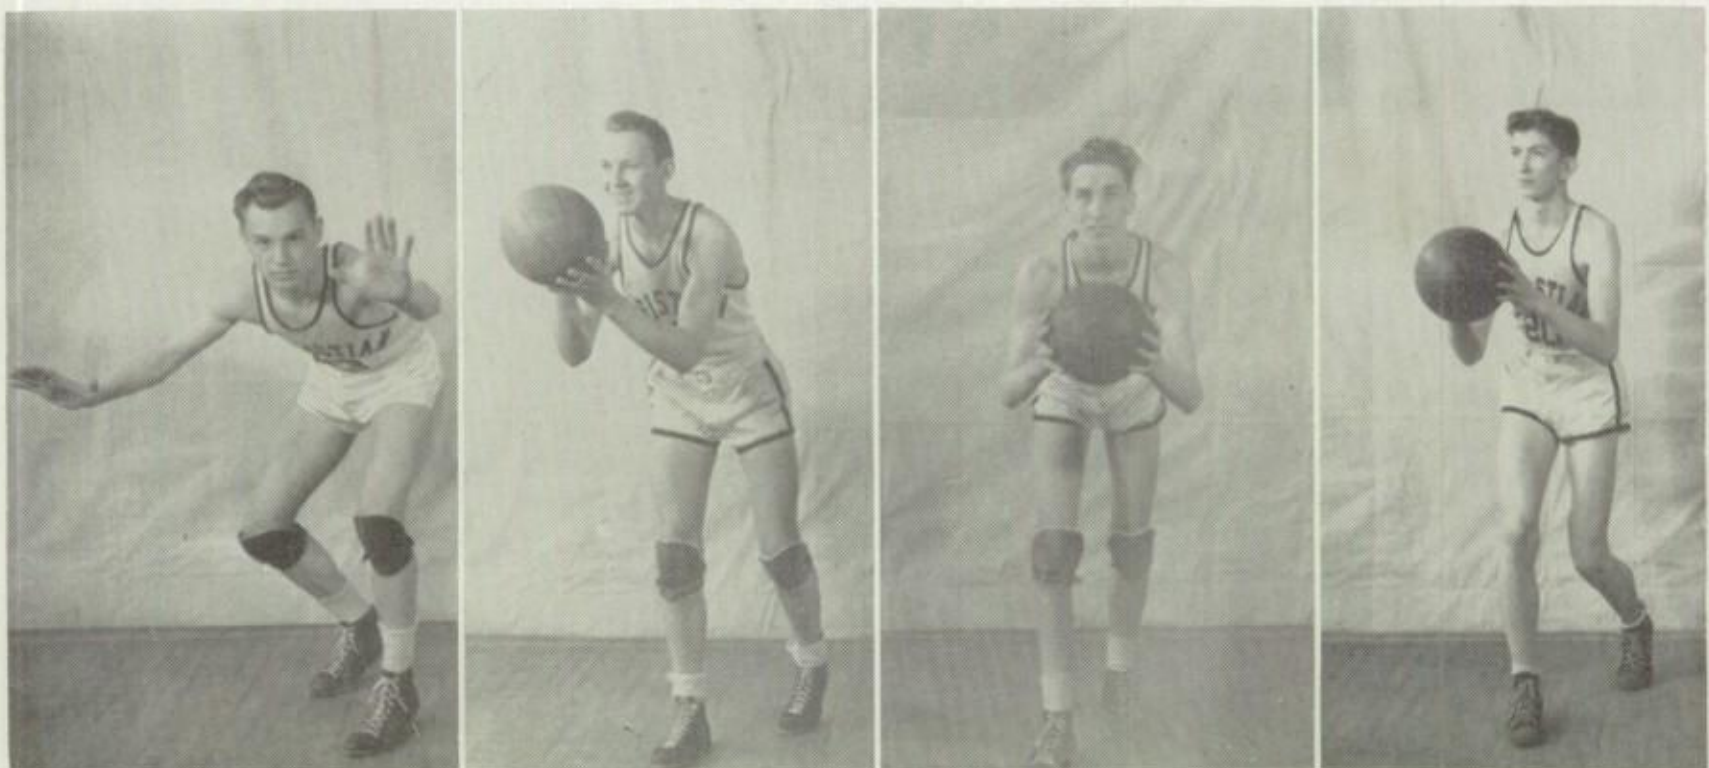

Our varsity basketball team has again had a very successful season. This success was due to the loyal cheering section as well as to the team members and Coach Art Tuls, who spent so many hours in training the boys.

After handing our first opponent, Fennville, a 47 to 23 defeat, our team was determined to "raise cane" in all competitive basketball, and it did just that. The regular season gave them fifteen victories and two defeats. Many a class "A" outfit bowed, fighting, to our powerhouse.

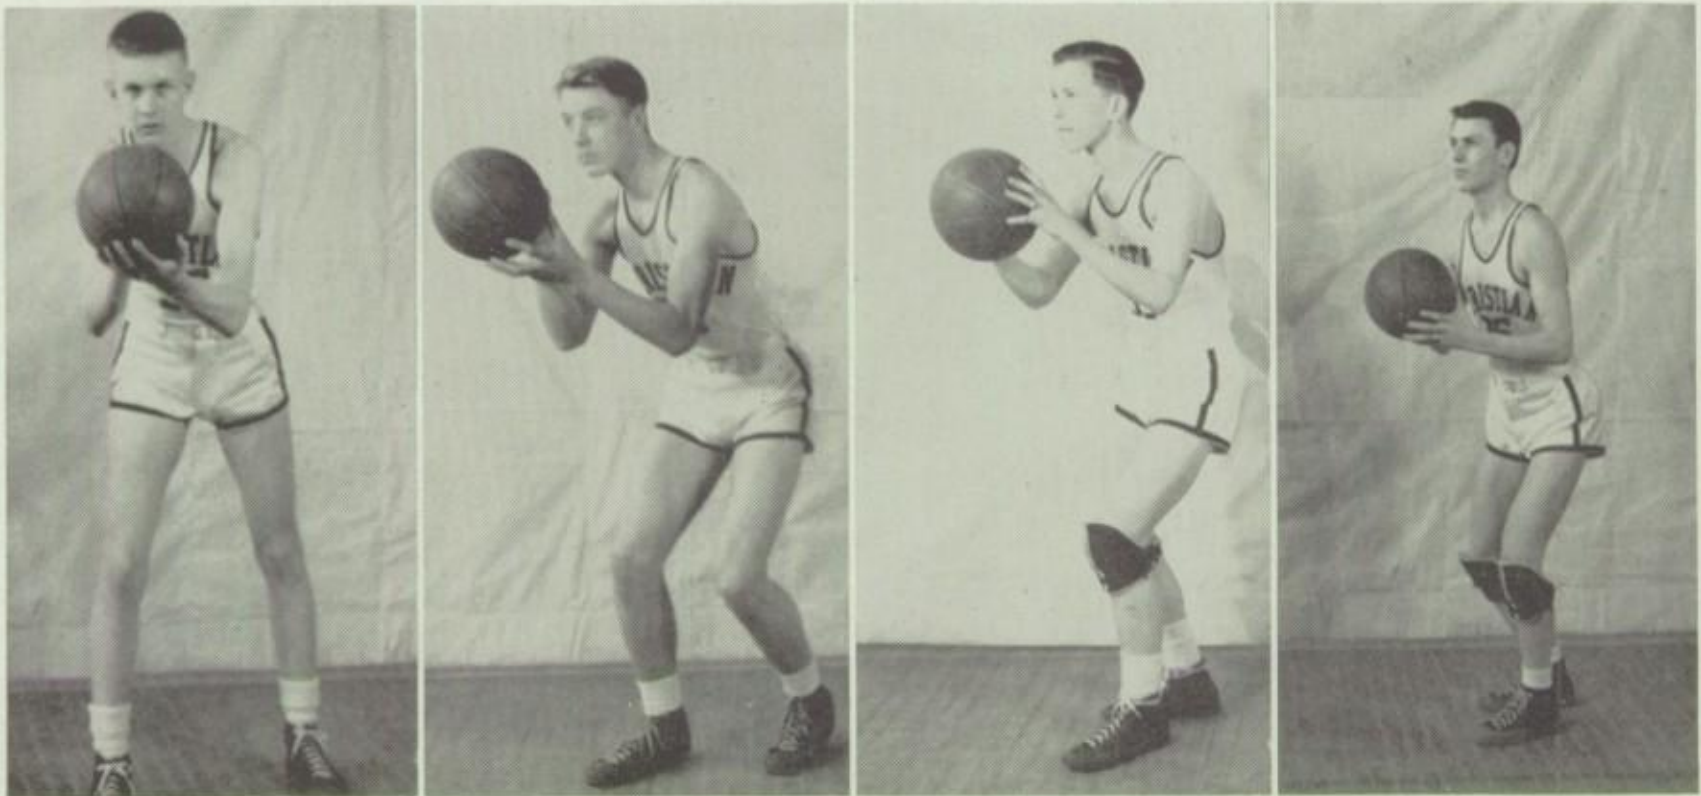

They say there's an end to all good things and our continual victories did come to an end; but this occurred at a most disappointing time. Yes, we bowed to Western State in the Regional tournament by a score of 23 to 22.

To almost all of us, the most exciting game of the season was the regional encounter with St. Joseph held in St. Joe's gymnasium. The lead changed hands several times, but the final gun found grand old Holland Christian on the long end, 29 to 26.

Again the season of '46-'47 found Holland Christian a "classy" outfit and we hope this successful season may give moral support to each future team.

FAREWELL FELLOW GRADUATES

Mr. Bengelink, who leaves us after five and one-half years for the science department of Calvin College.

With a note of mingled sadness and joy we say good-bye to these members of the faculty — of sadness because of the loss to Christian High; of joy because of the challenge presented them in their new fields of service. Thank you for all you have done to enrich our school and our lives. God's blessing be upon you in the future. Farewell.

Mr. Kleinjans, who leaves us to prepare himself for teaching in the mission schools of China.

GRATITUDE

The Footprints staff wishes to thank:

Mr. Isaac Haak for his help with the art work.

Steketee-Van Huis Printing Co. for their invaluable advice.

Mr. Holwerda and Miss Grevengeod for their untiring aid to the staff.

The advertisers for their willing cooperation.

The students who contributed snaps.

All those who have contributed in any way to the making of our annual.

TIME MARCHES BACK

While looking through her relics, Eleanor Bareman found this third grade composition on "The Goose."

"The goose is a low, heavy-set bird, composed mostly of meat and feathers. His head sets on one end and he sets on the other. He cannot sing much on account of the moisture in which he lives. He carries a toy balloon in his stomach to keep from sinking. A goose has two legs and they set so far back on his running gear that they came pretty near missing his body. Some geese when they get big are called ganders. Ganders don't have to set and hatch, but just loaf, eat, and go swimming. If I was a goose, I'd rather be a gander."

Officer: "Say, what's the idea of going 65 miles an hour?"

Celia Bruinooge (very sweetly): "Why officer, don't be silly! I couldn't have been going over 25 at the most. In fact, I don't think I was going more than 20."

Officer: "Well, maybe you're right. I'll just tear this ticket up and give you one for parking."
